

Entrepreneurship

Class Syllabus

Revised 1/2/2009

This course is designed to help students prepare to become a business owner. It provides skill-based instruction and real-life applications students will need to anticipate and understand the situations and attitudes encountered in the world of work.

Textbook used: Entrepreneurship and Small Business Management, 2000, Glenco

Topics to be covered:

What is Entrepreneurship	Business Planning
Price Strategy	Planning to Manage
Managing, Purchasing & Inventory	Financial Management
Risk Management	Global Opportunities
Social & Ethical Responsibility

REQUEIRED MATERIALS

- 3-Ring notebook with at least five dividers for handouts and notes.
- Paper for notes and writing utensils.

STUDENT EXPECTATIONS

1. Come to class prepared and ready to work each day.
2. Make up all missed work within three days of absence. Make-up tests must be arranged for before/after school or during seminar. You will not be allowed to make up a test during class time. If you are absent on the day that an assignment is due, the assignment must be turned in at the beginning of the next class period or it will not be accepted.
3. Your student agenda should be signed on the Iola High School Acceptable Use Policy page in order for you to use the Internet for classroom activities. Parents/Guardians must also sign the agreement. You will need to show it to me before you are allowed to use the Internet.

ATTENDANCE

Regular attendance is expected of all students. If you must be absent, it is your responsibility to obtain missed notes from other students and missed assignments or handouts from the teacher. This must be done BEFORE class begins. I will not stop today's class activities to give you your assignments. Tardy policy will follow that in the student handbook.

LATE ASSIGNMENTS

Will be accepted ONLY if you are absent on the due date. It is YOUR responsibility to find out what was missed. You will be given two class periods to turn in any missed assignments due to absences. Late work is NOT accepted and assignments are to be turned in when asked for.

GRADES

9 weeks grades—total points from assignments, special projects, reports and tests.
Semester Grades—50% of each 9 weeks grade.
