RULES AND REGULATIONS FOR MRS. GREGG'S CLASSROOM

CLASSROOM RULES

1. Come to class prepared.
2. Dispositions spread, you are responsible for yours!
3. Gum is allowed, if you know how to properly chew and dispose of it.
4. Food and drink are not allowed in individual classrooms with out permission from administration.
5. Follow the "Golden Rules", posted in the classroom.

School rules are posted in your agenda book. These rules take precedence over classroom rules and are to be observed at all times.

CLASSROOM CONSEQUENCES

1. Visual contact will be made with the student
2. Proximity management.
3. Student will be spoken to directly and specific behavioral problems will be identified.
4. The student will be removed from the classroom until the appropriate behavior can be resumed.
5. The student may be required to stay after school for 30 minutes. This is to be done within two (2) days after the detention is given.
6. Parent will be contacted.

Individual behavior plans will take precedence over the above stated consequences.

ABSENCE POLICY

If a student is absent from school, it is the student's responsibility to contact the necessary teacher(s) in order to get the missed assignment(s). The student will have three(3) block periods, after they return to school to make up that designated block class assignment(s) before points will be taken off. If the work is not completed by the end of the 9 weeks, it will result in a 0% for that assignment.
